Ezekiel 47: 1-2, 8-9, 12, Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17, John 2: 13-22

FOCUS: United in Christ we are one Church throughout the world.

In today's reading from Ezekiel, the prophet sees himself in a new Temple in a new Jerusalem. The Book of Revelation describes the end of the world as a "new Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God" (Rv21:2). The original Temple had been built by King Solomon as a fitting dwelling place for the Ark of the Covenant, the tablets inscribed with the ten commandments, which had led the people to the Promised Land, and was a symbol of God's love for Israel. The Temple was a sign of pride and glory for Israel, a beautiful place where God's people gathered to remember his mighty deeds and to bear witness to his lasting love. Now Ezekiel describes the Temple flooded with overflowing water, a very precious commodity in a desert land. All life comes from the water and is sustained by the water, so it is a special sign of God's presence and love for his people.

Jesus honored the Temple of his day by being present there on the special religious holidays, teaching and praying there with his disciples. He continued the tradition of joining with the people in celebrating God's presence in that special place. Today we hear of the righteous anger which wells up in Jesus when he sees a lack of respect for all the Temple stands for with the buying and selling going on there. Jesus forcefully turns over the tables of the offenders and lets them know that they are out of line for profaning and desecrating such a sacred place.

We realize that the presence of God cannot be confined to a building, however beautiful it may be. Following the resurrection, the Spirit of Jesus resides within us and we are truly the body of Christ alive and active in the world. On this special day of the anniversary of the dedication of the Basilica of Saint John Lateran in Rome, we join our hearts and prayers with those of our chief Shepherd, the bishop of Rome, Pope John Paul II. We are proud to be baptized believers and members of the universal Church which exists in every corner of the world and is made up of diverse people.

Just as the water from the Temple brought life to all the places it flowed, the life-giving waters of baptism bring us the gift of eternal life. We will one day share this gift with all of those who are faithful to call to salvation.

MARRIED COUPLES!

How would you like to spend a weekend away with your spouse - just the two of you before the holiday madness begins? Away from everything: the kids, job, phone, bills and house? Plan to get away to a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. The last Weekend of 2003 will be November 21 - 23 at the Comfort Inn in Nanuet, NY. For more information call: 212-371-1000x3190, 718-707-1050, 914-378-5464 or 845-635-8566, or our POC Tom and Mary Julick at 446-1071

Musings from the Pastor's Corner

Let us resolve to Pray the Rosary daily for those deployed and the families who await their return.

We welcome Fr. Neil Jones who will be doing a Baptism after the Saturday 1715 Mass. We welcome Fr. Sullivan, S. J. and the members of the Fordham Pershing Rifles who are with us today at the 1100 Mass. They are celebrating the 55th Anniversary of the Pershing Rifles of Fordham University. The 1100 Mass is being offered for their deceased members.

We thank all those parishioners who made the Engaged Encounter last weekend a wonderful weekend.

We had about 14 couples and families who were part of the weekend to include those praying for the Engaged couples and those giving the talks. Seven Engaged Couples were on the weekend.

Marriage Encounter! Get ready to enrich your already powerful marriage! More details comings! We are most lucky to have a number of Marriage Encounter qualified couples in our parish. Family is the key!

Spend time with Jesus in the Eucharist: Wednesday, 1820-1925 @ MHT. Exposition, Adoration, and Benediction. Confessions are available!

Come join us for daily Mass every Saturday at 0900 at MHT.

Tuesday, 11 November - Veterans Day—Daily Mass 0900

With Gratitude and prayer,
Fr. Jerry
